Edmonton Light and Waterworks Systems.

Edmonton citizens have displayed their progressive spirit in having installed municipal waterworks and electric light systems. The electric light system has been in operation for some time and the waterworks system is well under way and will be ready for active use as soon as the house connections can be laid. The contract for the installation of the machinery for the waterworks system was awarded to the Robt Engineering company, of Amherst, N.E. J. C. Porter represented the company in their Edmonton operations. The electric light plant was installed by the Canadian General Electric Light Company under the supervision of Chas. L. Leacock. The pumping house is under the charge of Mr. Simpson, under Mr. Ashbridge's supervision. The waterworks machinery consists of two standard boilers of 150 horse power each, and a 1000 horse power, cross compound, engine with steam and exhaust piping and pipe coverings, etc. The old electric light plant, which is in operation as well as the new, consists of two return tubular boilers of 80 horse power each and one tandem compound engine of 150 horse power. The boilers are fed by a Northrup duplex outside packed pump with sufficient capacity to feed the four boilers.

The boilers supply steam to run the waterworks pump during the day. Arrangements have lately been made to have the plant fitted with a thousand horse power condenser. There is a force of 450 horse power available for the electric light plant, but only about 250 horse power now being used. The pumps require 100 horse power to run both together. For electric lighting the large engine is run until 11:30 p.m., then the 150 horse power engine until 5:30 a.m., when the large engine is run again till morning.

The dynamo and switchboard of the electric light plant were installed by the Canadian General Electric company. The machine is a 2,000 light S.E.G. alternator, excited by a 4 1/2 K.W.D.C. bipolar generator. Upon the blue Vermont marble switchboard are mounted one volt meter with new style of double throw switch, which connects either phase of the machine to the motor. There are two amperes meters on each circuit, one ground detector; also four switches upon board, one to connect the excitor to the alternator field, the generator to the bus bars and two switches which connect the bus bars to the transmission line. There also two rheostats: one controlling the field current of the excitor and the other regulating the amount of current flowing to the alternator field. At the bottom of the switchboards are two regular heads, each one being connected with several coils of armature, allowing an adjustment of voltage if either phase is more heavily loaded than the other. Provision is also made for running the old machine at the same time as the new one. A lamp mounted upon the switches indicates by a pulsation the relative speeds of the two machines; when the lamp is bright the two generators are in phase and the switches can be closed, paralleling the same.

Free Lance—That coal of first class quality underlies Innisfail is beyond all possible doubt. At a depth of some 225 feet the drill in the creamery well encountered a thin layer of coal and a few feet further down a seam of fully six feet thick was struck. The quality is exceptionally good, but it remains to be seen whether it could be profitably worked at this depth.

AN OPEN LETTER

To the Builders of Edmonton District.

Gentlemen: No doubt you have heard and read in the papers recently a great deal about the so-called "LUMBER COMBINE," and the consequent advance of prices. In this connection a few statements of fact from us may be in order.

The manufacturers of British Columbia advise us that the advance in price is due to the increased cost of labor and of materials and that this justifies the advanced prices to the trade. Whether this is true or not we are not in a position to judge.

But we do know that it is very difficult to get orders for B. C. lumber filled with any degree of promptness. Many of the mills are sold out of stock and cannot at present ship a car. We therefore claim that the advanced prices are due to scarcity of lumber in our day not so much by the cost of production as by the general demand for the commodity.

As to our own prices we beg to say that we are careful to see that they bear a right relation to cost. We cannot help the rise in B. C. lumber because the cost price is considerably advanced. But in the lines of our own manufacture such as Windows, Doors, Frames, etc., our prices are lower than the prices for the same articles either in British Columbia or Manitoba. This will indicate to you our position in this matter.

In view of the scarcity referred to if you are building or intend to do so, we advise you to place your order with us as soon as possible, so that we may get in a position to fill it when required. We promise to do the very best for our customers that circumstances will permit.

Very Truly Yours,

SIR OLIVER MOWAT

The death of Sir Oliver Mowat, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, which occurred last week, is the removal of a hand mark rather than a public event. At the age of 84 and at the expiration of a term as Lieutenant Governor, it would not be within the bounds of reason, to look upon the distinguished deceased as a further active force in Canadian public life. He had a remarkable career; remarkable for its length, and still more remarkable for its uniform success. Of him it might fairly be said that he never made a failure, and even his opponents would admit that his mistakes were few. A contemporary of the late Sir John Macdonald, his attitude towards public life was a direct opposite and resulted in more uniform and longer continued, if not quite such high success. In private as well as in public life the influence which he exercised was always for good, and his success to a demonstration of the truth of the maxim that honesty is the best policy, for his policy was always everything else, honesty; not because it was policy, but because it was right. It was too frequently said and still more frequently believed, that honesty and success do not travel together in public life. Sir Oliver Mowat was the most uniformly successful of all prominent public men, and his name and fame stand above all else for honor and uprightness. It would be a mistake to suppose that mere honesty assured the success of Sir Oliver Mowat's career, but his career proved not only that honesty is not a bar to success, but that it is a necessity of continued and lasting success.

In principle and politics he was a liberal and his knowledge of public affairs extended from the very beginning of that responsible government in Canada which is the achievement of Liberalism, to its climax at the present time. He was born in 1820 and therefore was seventeen years of age at the time of the rebellion of '37. He lived to see the triumph of the principles of responsible government, until the principles, for the support of which he was banished in '37, came to be so universally accepted that throughout the Dominion of Canada today, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there is not a man, whatever his politics, to call them in question. During the great part of his life he saw the destinies of Canada in the hands of those who in the first place unwillingly accepted and adopted the principles of responsible government, but he lived to see those principles and the men who advocated them, triumph through out Canada, from sea to sea, to be so universally accepted that throughout the Dominion of Canada today, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there is not a man, whatever his politics, to call them in question. During the great part of his life he saw the destinies of Canada in the hands of those who in the first place unwillingly accepted and adopted the principles of responsible government, but he lived to see those principles and the men who advocated them, triumph through out Canada, from sea to sea, to be so universally accepted that throughout the Dominion of Canada today, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there is not a man, whatever his politics, to call them in question.

He was born near Kingston in 1820 of Orkney parents. He studied law and soon occupied a leading position at the bar. He entered politics and was one of the framers of the Act of Confederation, representing what is now Ontario. He then was made a judge, but left the bench to take the leadership of the government of Ontario when Richard Dake resigned the premiership to devote himself entirely to Dominion politics. He continued to lead that government successfully for twenty-four years and only left to take the position of Minister of Justice in the Laurier government upon the accession of the liberal party to power in the Dominion in 1896. When the Lieutenant Governorship became vacant he accepted and kept the position for a full term with all credit. His term of office expired some months ago but he was continued in the office until the appointment of a successor, when the term came. He was in his eightieth year and enjoyed to the fullest degree his mental faculties until his last short illness. Even the physical infirmities of age weighed lightly upon him until nearly the very last.

 A more fortunate career could scarcely be imagined, and its crowning glory is that although it was passed for the space of an ordinary lifetime in the glare and stress of prominent place and political struggle, enemies and friends unite over his grave to say, "Here lies an honest man."

THE EDMONTON RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The above association has reorganized for 1903 with the following officers, Captain, H. B. Spratt.

1st Lieut., W. A. Griestbach.
 2nd Lieut., P. McNaughton.
 Sec-Treas., Geo. A. Reid.
 Committee, Wm. Pearce, G. H. Graydon and L. Savard.

The range has been overhauled and necessary repairs effected, and everything is now in readiness for practice which begins next Saturday afternoon, as will be seen in our advertising columns.

As some misunderstanding exists as to the liability for service, etc., of the members of this association we are pleased to supply the following information, from an official source.
 The Edmonton Civilian Rifle Association was organized last year on the basis of the Reserve Militia, under the provisions of the Militia Act, which are as follows:—

"Every person who shall be accepted as a member of the Civilian Rifle Association shall, upon his acceptance, and before he shall be ranked as an effective member thereof, take and subscribe before a Justice of the Peace, the oath of allegiance. In the event of a national emergency, any person whose name has been enrolled in the reserve militia of the Dominion."

Over 100 members are enrolled and a regular weekly practice is held on Saturday afternoons, a bus leaving the Imperial Bank corner, at 2 o'clock for the range on Groat's Flat. One rifle is provided for each squad of four men and ammunition is supplied at a very low rate. The association had a very successful season last year, and many of its members are becoming fairly proficient in the use of the rifle. As the object of these associations is to train civilians in the use of the rifle, for the purpose of home defence, we hope to see all patriotic citizens become members of the local associations, and learn something of the use of that very fine weapon, the Lee-Enfield rifle.

The membership fee is only two dollars per annum, the bus fare 25 cents for the round trip, and the cost of ammunition only 1-2 cents per round, and for those who cannot practice on Saturdays provision is being made for the formation, among the members, of parties to go to the range at any time agreeable to themselves.

200 LOTS

50 X 150

ON

Kenneth Macdonald Flats

The Finest Alluvial Soil on Earth.

On each Lot enough may be grown to support a family.

The property adjoins Little's brick yard on the South, the Experimental Farm on the North, and overlooks the Saskatchewan on the East.

The opposite bank of the river, rising in natural terraces, from the water's edge to an average height of 150 feet, beautifully wooded, affords A PANORAMA OF HARMONY AND DELIGHT.

Edmonton has passed the experimental stage, and will possess in a few years a metropolitan population.

The Railway Question is settled. The Canadian Pacific, Grand Trunk and Canadian Northern are assured quantities.

A fact not generally known substantiates that Edmonton will be a terminus for some years, is that the carrying capacity of the Canadian Pacific exceeds the Oriental and British Columbian trades combined, and the three great roads mentioned will halt before pushing on to the Pacific, thereby making our city of vastly more importance than it would otherwise have been.

Much of the timber is primeval. The principal streets will be boulevarded, and ancient growth furnish overshade.

Maps and schedules of prices open for inspection at W. H. Hooper Company's Office on May 4, 1903.

Plans and Prices can be seen at the Office on and after the date mentioned.

This is the closest and best property available, and the choicest in and about Edmonton. The furthest part is from 10 to 15 minutes from the post office. The property is eminently the people's portion: is not controlled by a policy of inertia dictated by "Hebraic Hatred." The surveys conform to existing ones, and the streets will be projected to their legitimate confines. Building Sites on the verge of the hill overlooking the mighty Saskatchewan, the foliage and verdure of whose banks is not exceeded by the fiercest tropics or softest Pacific scenes, abound. Prices will be uniform and moderate, tempered as a corrective of the present indefinite craze.

TERMS.—One third Cash. Balance 6 and 12 months, interest 8 per cent. Agreements $2 each, transfers free.

TERRITORIAL PUREBRED CATTLE SALE

The next event of importance in the live stock world is the show and auction sale of purebred cattle to be held at Calgary under the auspices of The Territorial Purebred Cattle Breeders' Association on the 13th and 14th of May next. The entries now aggregate nearly three hundred and animals will be gathered from the following points: Moosomin, Wapella, Whitehead, Broadview, Grenfell, Regina, Prince Albert, Rosbarn, Saskatoon, Oiler, Orbow, Crane Lake, Medicine Hat, Pincher Creek, and practically from every point on the Calgary and Edmonton Railway. Every preparation for the reception and care of the animals has been made at Calgary by Secretary Paterson, Sale Superintendent Talbot and staff.

The Association has done yeoman work for Territorial purebred cattle breeders in carrying out an energetic and persistent educational propaganda designed to demonstrate the undoubted superiority of homebred and acclimated bulls for the local market. There is now a strong feeling on the part of buyers in favor of western bred bulls, and, furthermore, the ranchers and stockmen give point to their preference by paying a premium for such stock. This state of affairs is quite different to that prevailing a few years ago, and, what is more important, such a sentiment means money in the pockets of our breeders. There can be no doubt that the annual auction sale has amply justified its existence and the most important factor in making it the success it is, has been the liberal transportation arrangements offered. The Association will this year undertake to deliver all bulls purchased at the buyer's nearest railway station west of Moosejaw for a nominal charge of two dollars per head. Low rates are also in force east of Moose Jaw. In spite of this feature, the sale has not in the past been as well patronized by ranchers as might be expected, and it is likely that a large number of strong, useful bulls, not fitted as skillfully as would be desirable, will be sold at very low figures.

The catalogue of entries has now been published and copies may be obtained upon application to C. W. Paterson, Secretary Live Stock Association, Calgary, N.W.T.

HORSE HILL.

Wild ducks are quite plentiful this spring, but we observe that very little shooting is being done. It is to be hoped that the game law prohibiting spring shooting will be passed before another spring appears.

Wm. Duke has engaged with Mr. Stewart for the summer, and will take charge of the McLay farm which Mr. Sargent purchased lately.

Messrs. Allan have been busy for the past week crushing grain for the farmers. They also crushed 500 bushels of oats, which they sold to Williamson Bros. of Edmonton.

An interested person is offering a reward of $50 for information that will lead to the conviction of the party or parties who set fire to the prairie on northwest quarter section four, on Tuesday last. The fire did considerable damage to surrounding property. H. Vezina's new barn is now completed and is a great addition to the attractiveness of his farm. It is a frame building, 30x50 with a spacious hay loft, and capable of furnishing accommodation for a large number of horses and cattle. This is one of the most commodious and attractive barns on the hills.

Chas. Stewart is about to add a very important feature to his stage business by running a daily stage up and back from the Fort to Edmonton. By relying at the Half-way Hotel on both trips this becomes quite possible, besides being a far greater accommodation to passengers than formerly.

Our road overseer was out last week repairing several culverts which were broken last fall by traction engines passing over them. Culverts on these roads have to be of extra heavy timber to support the traffic of these ponderous engines, particularly when the drive wheels are armed with those formidable spikes called frost grips.

The arrival of migratory birds, the honking of wild geese, the croaking of frogs in the ponds and the rush of waters in the creeks, are sounds which convince us that spring is once more at hand. A small percentage of wheat has already been sown on fall plowing and summer fallow. Although the present snowstorm will somewhat retard the tilting of the soil, next week will see the man behind the plow busy in general.
